The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Continuation of 3. NOTE: The earlier claims depended from cancelled claims .

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's request to reconsider entry of the earlier AF amendments because the scope has not changed is denied because the new issues will cause the Examiner to determine what is the best rejection. For example, some claims depended from cancelled claims and there was no clear way for the examiner to adequately address same. Other claims were rejected as lacking written description problem. Clearly the scope has changed since the amendment renders claims with different or more elements. However, if applicant wishes to discuss the claims, Examiner will entertain AF amendments for any agreeable allowable matter and applicant is invited to telephone the examiner at his convenience.
